

How To Get There from The Jacquard Center

There is no traffic light at Ingles, but you can turn left into a center turn lane when you exit, and then merge into traffic.

Lowe's Hardware

Church St. is one-way south. If you miss the entrance to the Fresh Market plaza from Church St., continue to the traffic light where you turn right. To return, go left at the traffic light and bear right on King St. which is one-way north. When there are three lanes, be in the middle one.
